

Mr. Jeffery Millison

Mr. Millison currently serves as the Academic Dean for the Virginia University of Integrative Medicine and has done so since 2018.

Prior to arriving at VUIM, Jeff was the Academic Director of the Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine department at the Maryland University of Integrative Health from 2001-2018. A faculty member at that institution since 1992, he also served as a clinical supervisor and taught multiple courses.

Mr. Millison is the Chair of the CCAHM Curriculum Committee, and was a member of the ACAHM (Accreditation Commission of Acupuncture and Herbal Medicine) First Professional Doctorate Task Force. In addition, he has served as a Site Visitor for ACAHM as well as other accreditation commissions.

Mr. Millison also served on the board of the Maryland Acupuncture Society from 1992 to 1996. He has been in clinical practice since 1991 and was the co-founder and co-director of the RiverHill Wellness Center (Ellicott City, MD), a multidisciplinary and integrative center for health and healing.

Mr. Millison is a 1991 graduate of the Traditional Acupuncture Institute (now MUIH). He also earned a bachelor's degree in English from the University of Maryland in 1985, and in 1988 completed coursework towards a master's degree in holistic psychology from Boulder College. In 1996 he completed a two-year program in Chinese herbal medicine.
